Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Scott C. Harris on 24 April 2012.

The application has been amended as follows;

As to claim 27, -- comprises operations on said computer for communicating with an automated attendant that answers for the stored contact information. -- is deleted and -- comprises an attendant on said computer for communicating with an automated attendant that answers for the selected contact.--.

As to claim 28, -- comprises communicating with an automated attendant by automatically entering an extension -- is deleted and -- comprises an attendant for communicating with an automated attendant by entering an extension.—is inserted.

the Office, as the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office no longer prepares new drawings. The corrected drawings are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The requirement for corrected drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Reasons for Allowance

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the prior art made of record teaches an automated attendant for receiving a call but do not teach a computer including commands for controlling a telephone function that controls placing a telephone call wherein the telephone function further comprises an attendant or call assistant which communicates with the automated attendant of the called party to further find the called party.

Conclusion

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
